"FISA MEMO" USA TODAY ARTICLES
Exhibits

Defendant Frederick Banks files the "FISA MEMO" USA Today Articles Exhibits and represents:

1. As this Court knows in November 2016 Defendant sent a letter to Ivanka Trump in which he told Ms. Trump that the Trump Campaign was under FISA electronic surveillance. (The letter was typed in the Bop's training computer system emailed to FCI Butner's business office then printed out and mailed to Ms. Trump at Trump Tower in NYC. As such the letter is a Bop Agency Record subject to FOIA and the privacy Act.) Defendant sent a copy of the letter to the Court sometime after it was sent to Ms. Trump and the Court stated it was taking no action on the letter since it did not seek any relief.
2. In March 2017 President Trump himself claimed that he had a FISA warrant on him and Congressman Devin Nunes stated that the Trump Campaign was under FISA surveillance. Nunes released a memo detailing FISA abuses by the FBF in obtaining the FISA warrant. Defendant has been claiming for years that the FBF placed a FISA warrant on him and it was unlawful and if there is FISA it was illegal. Defendant sought numerous times to obtain the FISA materials in this case. The attached exhibits USA Today articles confirm what Defendant first brought to Ms. Trump's letter. Thus, Defendant did a great service to the Nation by exposing the illegal use of FISA on the Trump Campaign. It is time for this Court to order the government to disclose the FISA on Defendant if it exists. All of Defendant's FISA motions should be reconsidered by the Court.
